AMEN CORNER WITS IN REVEL

Guests to Enjoy Jokes on Himself.

700 AT THE FESTIVITIES

Taft Burlesqued and Sung About.

Diogenes's Secretary Says the State Executive Answers Qualifications.

The brethren of the Amen Corner, the Ameners listened to this dialogue: the political writers of hereabout, ner in the Waldorf-Astoria.

Many years ago the brethren adopted a motto, "Spare the josh and spoil the statesman." Last night they overlooked nothing that would keep the Governor from having a too good opinion of himself.

Last night they overBryan—Adjourned? Without me? Imposible. How could you have a Cabinet meeting without me?

The buffoonry, the burlesques and the witticisms were always in good taste and not too sharp, and nobody enjoyed the four hours of funmaking better than the guest of honor. In return he made a speech at midnight in which he said, that his policy of government would be to fight for all honest men and to fight against all grafters.

Save for Mayor Gaynor all of the celebrities invited by the Amen Corner were there to laugh at the jests against themselves. District Attorny Whitman, Charles F. Murphy, Borough President McAneny, John Purroy Mitchel and William Barnes, Jr., were only a few of the victims of the

Well Done Sketches,

The programme, which ran for four hours, included some especially well done sketches and burlesques in which most of the twenty-seven Ameners took part. "The Death of Cæsar," a travesty on the Roosevelt-Taft fight in Chicago, .was the liveliest of the purlesques. In this William Leary, as a lean and hungry Cassius, stabbed a make believe Taft, while James Lackage, the actor, who personated Col. Roosevelt, and William A Brady, who made up as Elihu Root, addressed a Roman citizenship composed of Robert Adamson, William E. Lewis, Patrick Rellihan, Thomas F. Smith and half a dozen other togaed Ameners.

President-elect Wilson, William J.

I am Governor will be an enemy mensely. "I will do my best to make good. I am guests. The programme which began at Churchill. 8 P. M. lasted until midnight.

Racket Disturbs Diners.

The guests had barely settled in their People's House," which flamed in electric lights a foot high over the speakers' table, when there was a racket outside the main entrance to the grand ballroom. Pistol shooting, yelling and C. Clarke and J. Angus Shaw. stamping of feet disturbed the banquet-'That's Julius Harburger taking a stage managed by Bill Brady, the critic Amos R. E. Pinchot, Timothy L. Wood- union involved in the strike, had cirof the critics, the Ameners sang an espe- ruff, ex-Gov. John A. Dix, Charles D. culars printed repudiating the strike cially composed piece called "The People's House." It was mostly about the things that Suizer had done. One verse is enough:

Who was it told George Washington The way to lick the King? Who was it told Caruso how

A tenor ought to sing?
Who was it wrote the Decalogue
When history began?
Why, any child can answer that— Bill Sulzer was the man when Diogenes's private secretary burst into the dining room. President Little asked Tom McGill, who was posing as the secretary, where his boss was. Mc-Gill said he was down at Trenton because he thought he had actually found an honest man in President Wilson. Diogenes had sent him to the Amen Cor-

zer. At this moment the spotlight fell There's your honest man," said Pres- Ameners and their guests were Travis ner dinner to have a look at Gov. Sulogenes's secretary, "I think I can re- nalism, Louis Stern, John F. O'Rourke, port that he looks like an honest man," William A. Brady, the boss stage man-"I would like to call your attention," ager of the whole show; a lot of Lambs continued Mr. Little, "to Mayor Gay- Club folk, including Clay M. Greene, Mr. Mitchel and-the Governor over." A policeman strode down the main Bartow S. Weeks, Judge Rosalsky, Sen aisle swinging his club. A gambler in ator Robert F. Wagner and a crowd a checked suit arose from his seat and of other Senators, Frank J. Farrell, tried to hand the policeman a roll of Thomas F. Foley. Al Smith, Speaker bills. The policeman indignantly waved of the Assembly; Alf Hayman, Col.

McGill, "I only had orders to look John F.

liceman, asking what was the principal occupation of the police force at

"Furnishing scenery," said the po-liceman, "for the political ambition of District Attorney Whitman, Mayor Gaynor, Comptroller Prendergast, Alderman Curran, Judge Goff, Dr. Parkhurst, Governor Sulzer Among the John Purroy Mitchel, George McAneny and a raft of other February candidates for Mayor. And then, your Honor, there's another occupation that takes most of our time."

"What's that?" said President Little.
"Passing the buck to the man higher up, who is never found," said the po liceman.

The Amen sextet, composed of young men who have positively the worst voices in the whole club, sang "Enteres Wilson, Bryan, Roosevelt and River Shannon Flows." This mournful Into Rest" to the air of "Where the ditty was about the grand old party.

Woodrow Wilson Comes In.

Cheering next brought the dinner to t full stop. People leaped to their feet n great excitement. The spare figure HONEST MAN IS FOUND of Woodrow Wilson was seen approaching the elevated seat of President Lit-The Amen Club had sent for President Wilson and his whole Cabinet, and when Wilson entered alone there was some surprise.

Then there was a loud noise at the door. William J. Bryan (Harold McD. Anderson) charged up the aisle shaking his fist. He leaped to the platform and the political writers of hereabout, made sport for Gov. William Sulzer last night at the Ameners' annual dinner in the Waldorf-Astoria.

Bryan—Hold on, hold on. Here I am. Am I late? Come as quick as I heard about the meeting. Sorry I kept the Cabinet waiting. Now that I am here let's begin. Wilson—Eegin? It's all over. Meeting's adjourned. Come on, I've got a present for you. Bryan—You have? What is it?

Wilson-A cocked hat.

A little after 10 o'clock there was a tremendous commotion at the main en-President Little discovered that the investigating committee which had been appointed to discover how the country was governed was ready to report. President Little asked Brothers Fitzgerald, Gilroy and Smith if they had spoken to Mayor Gaynor about graft in the Police Department. "Oh, yes," said Chairman Fitzgerald,

"the Mayor said he thought the department had graft well in hand." "What did Mr. Whitman say on the

"He said he could prove the Mayor was right." The committee reported that there was no money trust because they had learned from the men who controlled They had found out that Mr. Morgan why it takes such a lot of collateral.

Gov. Sulzer is really the State leader.

evening was inaugurated when way, as early as 7 A. M. Gov. Sulzer (or at least a mighty good makeup of the Governor) entered the room with his military secretary.

Bryan, Mayor Gayner and District At- an old time oration, part of which was: the strikers. The managers said they ment workers from walking out denied human nature. Most of us make mistakes because we don't understand human nature. If a man treats others as he would like to be treated nimself he will be pretty nearly doing justice to every one.

"When I became Governor, I didn't have an enemy in the State. I hoped that I wouldn't make any after I succeeded Brother Dix here. I was mistaken. I am and the property of the World spellbinders, scenting trouble from afar, arrived and began to do missionary work in the scenting trouble from afar, arrived and began to do missionary work in the neighborhood.

By 11:30 A. M. East Broadway in the vicinity of the Forward building was black with people and not less than 10, of the old saying that he who laughs last laughs best."

The American it would rather that I would rather that I would return the control of the old saying that he who laughs last laughs best."

The American it would rather that I would rather that I would rather that I would return the making offers to leat the world spellbinders, scenting trouble from afar, arrived and began to do missionary work in the neighborhood.

By 11:30 A. M. East Broadway in the vicinity of the Forward building was black with people and not less than 10, of the old saying that he who laughs last laughs best."

The American in the World spellbinders, scenting trouble from afar, arrived and began to do missionary work in the neighborhood.

By 11:30 A. M. East Broadway in the vicinity of the Forward building was black with people and not less than 10, of the old saying that he who laughs last laughs best."

The American in the world spellbinders, scenting trouble from afar, arrived and began to do missionary work in the neighborhood.

By 11:30 A. M. East Broadway in the vicinity of the Forward building was black with people and not less than 10, of the forward building was black with people and not less than 10, of the forward building was black with people and not less than 10, of the forward building was black with people and not less than 10, of the forward building was black making enemies every day. I know whereof I speak. But I want to say that at the Governor, who seemed to enjoy ing any windows in sight and throwing anybody who becomes an enemy of mine the joshing and the horseplay imfurniture around.

with every honest man and against every grafter no matter whether he is a Republican or a Democrat. I believe in the old integrities and in the new humanisecretary; Bernard M. Baruch, Treas-Among the merrymakers at table A were Secretary Tom Smith of Tammany secretary: Bernard M. Baruch, Treas-The Governor was roundly cheered Leader Murphy himself, Commissioner by the Amen Corner and their 700 Michael J. Drummond and Thomas W.

Table C was for the judges. At this table were Justices Dowling. McLaughlin, Pendleton, Seabury, Erlanger, Hen- ating the settlement of the strike. drick, Clarke, Scott, Davis, Guy, Ford. seats to admire the brilliant legend "The Bischoff and Lehman. Others were Frank H. Platt. Judge Julius M. Mayer Public Bank, at Ludlow and Delancey and Rollo Ogden.

Looking over table B one spied Ralph Pulitzer, Charles M. Lincoln, Arthur

At table E were Gov. Sulzer, Benstamping of feet disturbed the banqueters. President Little called upon Brother Bill Leary to explain the disturbance.

G'Gorman, Postmaster-General Frank horizing and shouting. Strike leaders hurried to the place and the crowd dis-H. Hitchcock, Democratic National persed on learning that Banker Marcus murderer quietly to Sing Sing," shouted Committeeman William F. McCombs, had nothing to do with the matter. Norman E. Mack, William Barnes, Jr., After the laughter, which was also Borough President George McAneny, Hilles, President Taft's secretary; Dis- settlement and calling on the strikers trict Attorney Charles S. Whitman, R. to keep up the fight until the union A. C. Smith, George Gordon Battle and John A. Bensel.

> table F, where Edwin A Merritt, Sena- and the reserves had to be sent for a tor Grattan and William H. Weeks second time. At 6 P. M. the Forward

table G. along with Big Bill (Street Cleaning Commissioner) Ed-The American were singing "Our wards, Charley Hand, Charles H. Hyde, Bill" to the air of "Row, Row," Charles Dana Gibson and Henry Smith. Unked Garment Workers said last evening that the behavior of the crowd

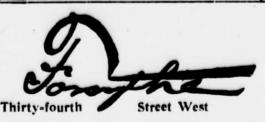

Table Rich in Talent.

Table H was rich in Amen Corner alent. There were James P. Gilroy, 'atrick T. Rellihan and other personators of the great. Near by at table I were Lafe B. Gleason, Robert C. Morris, William Berri, James B. Reynolds, John Sheehan, Max D. Steuer, E. M. Tierney and John S. Kennedy.

Among the others present of the H. Whitney, Prof. R. E. MacAlarney of "After looking him over," said Di- the Columbia Pulitzer School of Jour-Mr. Prendergast, Mr. McAneny, Holbrook Blinn, the Selwyn brothers, Archie and Edgar; Police Commissioner "Never mind about that," shouted Waldo, his secretary, Winnie Sheehan Galvin, Fire Commissione Joseph Johnson, Lee and J. J. Shubert There was so much commo- Jacob Ruppert, Jr., Otto T. Bannard,

"Many of them work for contractors

Smart Dress for Women, Misses' and Girls at Reasonable Prices

To-Morrow, Monday, March 3rd

Tailored Suits English Top Coats Street Dresses

Tailored Waists French Neckwear Paris Blouses Spring Millinery

John Forsythe 34th St. West 22 to 26

STRIKERS MOB BANK AND EDITOR'S OFFICE

Garment Workers Force Retraction of Article That Announced Settlement.

Crowd Hoots Banker Marcus, Confusing Him With Marcus M. Marks.

Announcement in the Jewish Daily the trust that there was no such thing. Forward that the strike of the garment workers had been declared off without did loan on character and that that was the formality of a referendum vote filled The committee reported that Charles the radical element of the strikers with F. Murphy is going to start an investigation soon to find out whether or not of settlement in the Forward and a ployed in downtown factories quit work crowd of malcontents began to gather at this morning and joined the other 6,000 Perhaps the most amusing stunt of the newspaper building, 175 East Broad- strikers. Many of the girls were doing

They demanded that the Forward get out an extra without delay declaring had locked the doors of their places and Swinging his arms, Suizer broke into that the agreement was repudiated by had otherwise tried to prevent the gartorney Whitman were amusingly caricatured.

The only speaker was Gov. Sulzer, After telling his hosts that he had been thoroughly entertained, he said:

"They say I seldom smile, but I want you to know that I'm having the time of the strikers care back at the strikers came back at intervals to renew their demand, only to be again driven away. They gathered in force in Seward Park and shouted that they strikers were soid out. Indus. writing about me.

'My guiding star. Silar Wright, never played to the galleries, and I would rather be Wright than be Hearst.

In force in Seward Park and shouted that the strikers were sold out. Indusmaking them alluring offers to leave trial Workers of the World spellbinders, Boston. It is charged that these agents scenting trouble from afar, arrived and have approached many girls and offered

They found the manager of the paper and demanded to know why he allowed an article to appear stating that the House, prohibits the shipment in interstrike was settled and congratulated the state commerce of intoxicating liquors strikers on a settlement in which they intended for sale in dry territory. This had no voice. The reserves from the Madison street station arrived and dispersed the crowd. The strikers met at Coper Union in diminished numbers and held a meeting later in the Stuyvesant Casino. where resolutions were passed repudi-

Some paper by mistake said that Joseph S. Marcus, president of the streets, had brought about the settlement instead of Marcus M. Marks of the conciliation committee of the Civic Federation. Several hundred men and women gathered at the Public Bank

While these events were occurring the Brotherhood of Tallors, the largest

The Forward building again was in William (Bill) Leary was in charge of vaded by a mob late in the afternoon came out with an extra stating that the Job E. Hedges scowled and smiled strikers were still out and would remain out until the union was recognized. on East Broadway would not affect the situation. He added.

"The trouble was stirred up by anarchists and malcontents. The strike is off, the strikers have obtained concessions that a week ago they would not have expected and the strikers will Manufacturing Company of 280 Greenwich recognition of the union. The next strike of the clothing workers will be that of the Children's and Misses' Dressmakers Union, which will go into effect this week. It will involve 15,000 workers, 95 per cent. of whom are girls. Miss Gertrude Barnum of the Women's Trade Union League said last evening that the conditions under which these girls work are worse than those of any other clothing workers. She said:

station. He had just begun to get the three pickets to keep moving when one of the girls, Rose Ceredia of 794 East 158th street, who, like the two others. was armed with an umbrella, began to wallop the policeman with it.

Angelina Bruno of 1497 Southern

Boulevard and Margaret Coleito of 1055 Tiffany street unlimbered their um-brellas and jumped forward to swat the policeman on any spot Rose had overlooked. Fullerton soon was yelling for help before he got the three girls to the station house. Rose Ceredia was held on a charge of assault and the two other POLICE DISPERSE 10,000 girls on charges of disorderly conduct.

Miss Maude Younger, the California society woman who delayed a proposed trip around the world to aid the women to San Francisco.

GIRL STRIKERS TEMPTED.

strikers, will start on her trip on March

15. She will go first to Europe and then to China, returning from a Chinese port

Many Boston Garment Workers Ge

Alluring Offers. Boston, March 1 .- According to members of the Ladies Garment Workers Union, 500 more women and girls empicket duty this morning and they had a hard task in the rain Manufacturers who, the strikers said,

Measure Prohibits Shipments of

WASHINGTON, March 1 .- By a vote of 229 to 71 the House to-day concurred in the action of the Senate by passing the Webb liquor bill over the veto of Presi dent Taft. This bill, which became a law immediately upon its passage by the was the first bill that has been passed over President Taft's veto. The general deficiency bill, last of the general appropriation or supply bills of the Senate, passed the Senate shortly after midnight. It was sent to conference. By a vote of 217 to 81 the House shortly before midnight passed the work-men's compensation bill. The measure was passed by the Senate at the last session and now goes to the President for

NIGHT IN CELL FOR BERGDOLL

Brewer's Son Caught in Philadel. phia in Unlicensed Car.

HILADELPHIA, March 1.-Grover Cleve and Bergdoll, termed by the police of va-rious counties as the "speed maniac," who spent last night in a cell, was confronted y eight warrants and was held in $1.00 bail for court to-day. Young Bergdoll had been captured when running his racing automobile after his license had been re voked and was taken into court hand-cuffed. The brewer's son was arrested in the company of Charles Krause, who frequently accompanies Bergdoll in his aer lane flights.

here are said to be twenty warrants ou or Bergdoll in other counties. He has al ways evaded arrest in his high powered yellow racing car.

MRS. WISNER ASKS ALIMONY. First Intimation That She Is Suing

Her Husband. The first intimation that Mrs. Beatrice M Wisner was suing her husband, Albert Wisner, for a divorce was made to-day when she applied for alimony pending the result of the trial.

Mr. Wisner is president of the Wisner return to work, glad to get back in spite of the efforts of the trouble makers who engineered the demonstration in front of the Forward building."

Mass meetings have been called for to-day by the disgrunted element to pass resolutions declaring against any stitks settlement that does not involve recognition of the union.

Manufacturing Company of 280 Greenwich street, Manhattan. The application for allmony was made before Supreme Court Justice Scudder in Long Island City.

The couple were married on May 8, 1895, and have three children, the oldest a boy of 18 years. In the application Mrs. Wisner says that her busband left her on December 19, 1912. She says he paid her $80 a week until recently, when the payments stopped. She asks for $80 a week alimony. The court reserved decision.

WM. F. MIDLIGE EXTRADITED.

Loses His Fight.

William F. Midlige, the Jersey City lawyer who made a long fight in the Chicago courts is now in the Hudson county jail, Jersey Midlige was indicted in Hudson county on the charge that he embezzled $13,772 from the Corre & Lavelle Railroad and imtwo and demanded an explanation. The gambler said that he was merely trying to contribute something toward the expenses of the big graft hunt.

"Well," said President Little, "I guess you meant no offence. To square yourself you may hand your contribution to Judge Goff, who is present, and go."

Prentice, who used to be a politician; Ezra P. Prentice, who used to be a politician; Eugene L. Richards, Assistant District Attorney Groehl, Charles F. Murphy (the Brooklyn C. F. M.), Robert L. Carry, Peter G. Garry, Frank M. O'Brien and dozens and dozens of statesself you may hand your contribution to Judge Goff, who is present, and go."

President Little questioned the population of the president little president Little questioned the population of the president Little questioned the population of the president little president Little questioned the population of the president little pres

STERN BROTHERS

are displaying large assortments of authoritative and distinctive styles in

Women's Suits, Dresses and Coats

for the coming Easter Season, including many exact reproductions of Parisian models, of the most approved Spring and Summer Fabrics, at Very Attractive Prices.

Also the following Specially Prepared Values for Monday:

strictly plain, man made, of Black, Navy and White Serges, Hairline Stripe and at $23.75 Black and Navy Canvas Cloth, with notch and shawl collars, draped and plain skirts, Demi-Tailored Suits, Copy of Bernard model, of Chiffon Broadcloth or Mannish Serge, elaborately braided, Two styles, of superior quality serge, blouse effects, 25.00 trimmed with satin and new art embroidery, shadow lace yokes, Afternoon Gowns, of high grade Crepe Meteor, vestee and front of waist of Bulgarian embroidery and net, Women's Coats Street Coats, of heavy Serge, three-quarter length, lined throughout with Peau de Cygne, silk collar and cuffs, trimmed with braid and ball buttons, Afternoon and Evening Coats, of Brocaded Silk Crepe, new draped kimono cut, lined throughout, Copies of Foreign Short Dressy Models, of Meteor and Moire, trimmed with ostrich feather banding and hand embroidery,

Millinery Opening Days Monday and Tuesday, March the Third and Fourth

Millinery Salons, Third Floor

Tailored Suits,

Seasonable Dress Fabrics

The newest weaves us, I by the leading Paris modistes are now being shown, consisting of Silk and Wool Brocaded Matelasses, Crep. and Poplins, Crepe Cord, Cote de Cheval and Embroidered Crepes in Bulgarian effects, Striped and Brocaded Wool Eponge, Faille de Laine, Needle Cord and the new Tuyaux d'Orgue Serge, also the most advanced styles of Tailor Suitings.

And in addition for To-morrow, an Important Purchase of 9500 Yards Imported Wool Bedford Cords,

in a large assortment of the newest Spring colors, also black, cream and ivory,

At the Special Price of $1.15 Yard

Upholstery Departments

New decorative effects are now being shown in Sunfast Materials, English Poplins, Sash and Casement Hangings, including Drawn and Plain Scrim, Soft Cream Madras, Egyptian Nets, Dotted Swiss, Persian Prints and an unequalled assortment of Cretonnes and Chintzes for the furnishing of Cottages, Bungalows, etc.

For To-morrow, Monday, a Special Offering of Scrim Curtains, trimmed with lace, Fancy Scrim, in plain and block effects, English Printed Cretonnes, Value $1.25 to 2.50 Pair, at 75c, 1.25, 1.75 " 15c, 22c, 28c Value 25c to 45c Yard. " 28c to 58c Yard. " 19c, 25c, 32c

Discontinued Styles in Lace Curtains and Spreads, Dresser Scarfs, Portieres and Furniture Coverings, in fine and medium qualities at Corresponding Reductions.

For Monday and the remainder of the week an Important Sale has been arranged of a late direct importation of very desirable

Oriental Rugs and Carpets

At the following Extraordinary Reductions:

Persian Irans, Serabends and Feraghans, in sizes about 5 to 1012 ft. wide by 19 to 22 ft. long. Values from $95.00 to 685.00, at $58.00 to 225.00 Persian Kirmanshahs about 9 by 12 ft. to 11 by 14 ft., Values from $295.00 to 525.00, at 168.00 to 288.00

Persian Sarouks. Values from $275.00 to 475.00, at 148.00 to 288.00 about 7 by 10 ft. to 9 by 12 ft., Persian Serapies,

Values from $195.00-to-325.00, at 100.00 to 175.00 about 9 by 12 ft. to 10 by 13 ft., Persian Mahals, Values from $148.00 to 285.00. at 72.50 to 168.00 about 9 by 12 ft. to 11 by 14 ft.,

India Rugs, a limited number in the finer qualities, in long and narrow sizes, from 9 to 11 ft. wide by 16 to 23 ft. long. Values from $450.00 to 675.00, at 195.00 to 295.00 Persian Sarouks and Kirmanshahs,

Values $88.00 to 95.00, at 49.50 about 412 by 7 ft.. Persian Hall Runners, in sizes 3 to 4 ft. wide by 16 to 18 ft. long. Values $78.00 and 95.00, at 39.75, 49.50

Value $15.75,

Beloochistan Rugs, about 21/2 by 5 ft., Oriental Rugs, of various modern and antique weaves, some slightly damaged,

American Royal Wilton Rugs, A Special Purchase, size 9 by 12 ft., Regular Value $40.00, at $25.00

West Twenty-Third and Twenty-second Streets had taken $1,000 worth of her jewelry out of pawn and after which, he says, she abandoned him and took away their six-monthsold child.

Mrs. Eili asked Supreme Court Justice o prevent his extradition to New Jersey, now in the Hudson county jail, Jersey suit for separation, alleging he abandoned ity, where he was taken yesterday evening. $1,500 he boasted of his conquests of women "and developed a mania for going to dances and balls with soubrettes and neglecting his family." She says he found domes-his family." She says he found domesticity irksome.

Eill replied that when he remonstrated with his wife because of language she used after she became a companion of women known to him as Guinea Grace and Biond Lottie, she said: "That is twentieth century talk that you are not quite up to."

Eill told the court his wife ruined him certain cities to conform with the rates from Manhattan to these volties: Boston, Washington, Pittsburg, Richmond, Cumberland and Portland, Me.

Irregularity in the rates has existed since Brooklyn was a separate city. The rate is cut about five cents a message.

The company announced also that it had instituted, beginning yesterday, an overnight cable letter service from New York to Cuba at five cents a word.

SAYS WIFE TOLD HIM TO STEAL.

Contractor Tells Court the Ruined

Him and Ran Away.

"Now I have you where I want you. You are down and out. I have got my jewelry back and you can go to the devil. Any woman who lives with her husband after he is financially ruined is a fool."

These statements are alleged by Jacob Eill, a trucking contractor, to have been made by his wife, Mrs. Birdie Eill, after he had taken $1,000 worth of her jewelry out of pawn and after which, he says, she aban-

BROOKLYN WIRE RATES CUT.

Message Charges to Six Cities Lowered by Western Union.

announced yesterday that it had reduced the rates on telegrams to Brooklyn from certain cities to conform with the rates

Mrs. Madelon Le Compte, who is suing her husband, Edward Le Compte, for sepa ration, and who was released from the Kings County Insane Asylum Tuesday of last week by Justice Blackmar, had been taken on an alleged improper commitment, yesterday appeared before Justice Scudder in Queens county and had

former District Attorney John B. Merrill

Mrs. Le Compte Gets New Lawyer.

at 7.85

at 5.00

of Queens substituted as her attorney.

Miss GODFREY announces that, commencing March

3rd, she will place on exhibition the most wonderful imported and origi-nal exclusive Spring Millinery Models

A cordial invitation is extended to all to inspect them. 429 Fifth Ave.

Between 38th & 39th Streets